

JAP PRESS IS CALM ON SENATE'S DEBATE

Newspapers Say No Matter What Attitude Is Taken Here Interests of Nation Unaffected.

WILL RETURN SHANTUNG

Statement Made Territory Will Be Restored and Joint Action Will Be Taken With Chinese.

By The Associated Press

TOKYO, Thursday, Aug. 7.—The newspapers generally are unanimous in their editorial opinion that the United States' attitude in the dispute in the Shantung province will not affect the Japanese interests in the territory.

The Japanese press generally is of the opinion that the American statement in their editorial opinion that the Japanese interests in the disputed province will not be affected by the American attitude in the dispute.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

After pointing out that it is Japan's intention to restore Shantung to China and to continue economic undertakings in Shantung jointly with the Chinese, the Nihon Shinmin interprets the attitude of the repudiation senators as being based on America's desire to achieve a world economic compact including China from which she desires to oust Japan economically.

The Jiji Shimpou says the Japanese minister to China already has opened negotiations with China concerning Shantung. It adds Japan is ready to make restitution of Shantung as soon as China is prepared to fulfill the terms of the joint statement concerning Shantung and the Japan will withdraw her troops and divide Tsin-Tao into three settlements—Japanese, Chinese and international.

CONGRESS BEGINS AT ONCE ON LAW FOR FOOD RELIEF

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE

prepared statement on his negotiation of the Lansing-Ishii agreement, which defined Japan's special interests in China and reaffirmed the "open door" policy.

Want House to Appear.

Republican leaders said today that the end of the committee's deliberations on the treaty was not in sight, despite demands for early ratification. Some republicans are insisting that no action be taken on the bill until after the election.

Letters asking about Mexican lands have been sent by Mr. Hall to commercial organizations in cities throughout several border states in Mexico.

For Lower Telephone Rates.

MUSKOGEE, Aug. 16.—Traversing the "pernicious" zone system of the southwestern Bell Telephone company, city commissioners this morning passed a resolution asking that the state corporation commission lower the present telephone rates. Rentals were boosted 35 per cent during the war-time period under government control, the resolution says.

LODGES AND SOCIETIES

AURORA LODGE NO. 38, I. O. O. F. Next meeting Wednesday August 19. Visitors welcome Second degree.

C. W. NICHOLSON, N. D. M. L. FOUNDATION Rec.

NEW STATE CAMP NO. 498, O. W. W. meets every Monday night at 8 p.m. East Second street. Visiting members always welcome.

W. C. SMITH, Our Own F. N. HARPER, Clerk.

TULSA CAMP NO. 591, M. W. A. and POCATORTON CAMP NO. 592, M. W. A. Meets every Tuesday night at 8 p.m. half past 15, East Second street. Visitors welcome.

R. E. MCCLURE, Counsel, M. W. A. M. L. Clerk.

MRS. C. A. HALL, Oracle.

MRS. L. J. WRIGHT, Recorder.

SILVER PLUM LODGE 192, R. P. meets every Thursday night at 8 p.m. Hall 15, East Second street. Visitors welcome.

JAMES O. FILAN, G. C.

H. L. RANDERS, K. H. & R.

TRINITY COMMANDERY No. 20, will meet every Saturday night at 8 p.m. at the Masonic Hall, South Main.

H. H. HEDRON, Commander.

CARL LEE, Secretary.

ARDAR TEMPLE A. A. O. N. M. R. No. 100, regular meeting September 12, 1919, South Main, Tulsa.

C. F. ROBERTSON, Pastor.

H. M. WHILLIAMS, Recorder.

TULSA LODGE NO. 11, meets every Thursday night at 8 p.m. at the Masonic Hall, South Main.

E. H. DAVIDSON, W. M. J. M. S. M. R. Secretary.

DELTA LODGE #25 will hold next meeting August 19, business only, at 8 p.m. at the Masonic Hall, South Main.

JOHN C. BURNETT, W. M. A. M. L. Secretary.

PETROLEUM LODGE No. 4, meets every Friday at 8 p.m. Meetings suspended until further notice. No. 100, South Main.

JOHN C. BURNETT, W. M. A. M. L. Secretary.

TULSA CHAPTER NO. 22, R. A. M. A. Meets every Saturday at 8 p.m. at the Masonic Hall, South Main.

W. E. BISHOP, High Priest.

M. A. BRECKINRIDGE, Deacon.

TULSA CHAPTER NO. 12, R. A. M. A. Meets every Saturday at 8 p.m. at the Masonic Hall, South Main.

JOHN C. BURNETT, W. M. A. M. L. Secretary.

OKLAHOMA CONSTITUTIONALISTS AND FRIENDS OF FREEDOM, Inc., meets every Saturday evening at 8 p.m. at the Masonic Hall, South Main.

JOHN C. BURNETT, W. M. A. M. L. Secretary.

OKLAHOMA NAVAL HERO IS GIVEN WAR HONORS

World's Washington Bureau.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The navy department has received from the French government and forwarded to Jameson Rufus Beale, pharmacists mate, third class, U. S. Navy, Quincy, Illinois, ex-pharmacists mate, second class, U. S. Vincent Albert Nolan pharmacists mate, third class, U. S. Navy and Bradford Cary Thompson pharmacists mate, second class, U. S. Navy, posthumous certificates for him to receive work brevet class honor certificates and decorations of same. The citations are as follows:

"To Q. Martin, in the battle of Belleau Wood, June 14, 1918, after a long bombardment of gas and incendiary shells he refused to leave the trench station in which he had a shell unexploded in spite of the execrable fire of the enemy. Next of kin, mother Mrs. Jameson Martin, Tulsa, Okla."

ASKS PRICE BOARDS IN ALL COUNTIES TO CHECK RETAILER

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE

You are requested to report to the department of justice a general review of the situation in your state.

Any evidence of hoarding or any other violations of the food control act which may be developed in the course of the investigation, be turned over to the United States attorney who will be empowered to seize all his resources as well as those of the Bureau of Investigation to operate with you and your county and state in carrying out the purpose set out in the law.

Under a preceding decision of the Department of Justice, nothing can be done through the various organizations which are not for the benefit of the country. As such your county administration together with your county commissioners can be used to the extent of their power to prevent any unnecessary expense to the state in the execution of the law.

Sheep Shearers Make $20 To $35 Daily Wage

Statement Made Territory Will Be Restored and Joint Action Will Be Taken With Chinese.

By The Associated Press

TOKYO, Thursday, Aug. 7.—The newspapers generally are unanimous in their editorial opinion that the United States' attitude in the dispute in the Shantung province will not affect the Japanese interests in the territory.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

After pointing out that it is Japan's intention to restore Shantung to China and to continue economic undertakings in Shantung jointly with the Chinese, the Nihon Shinmin interprets the attitude of the repudiation senators as being based on America's desire to achieve a world economic compact including China from which she desires to oust Japan economically.

The Jiji Shimpou says the Japanese minister to China already has opened negotiations with China concerning Shantung. It adds Japan is ready to make restitution of Shantung as soon as China is prepared to fulfill the terms of the joint statement concerning Shantung and the Japan will withdraw her troops and divide Tsin-Tao into three settlements—Japanese, Chinese and international.

After pointing out that it is Japan's intention to restore Shantung to China and to continue economic undertakings in Shantung jointly with the Chinese, the Nihon Shinmin interprets the attitude of the repudiation senators as being based on America's desire to achieve a world economic compact including China from which she desires to oust Japan economically.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.

The Yomiuri Chuo expresses the fear that the excessive anti-Japanese feelings will adversely affect the good relations between Japan and the United States.

The Japanese declare that no matter what action the senate may take in the business it cannot affect Japanese interests which were acquired under the treaty which will be ratified by the other powers.